- Adventure competitions for employees, friends, and families
- Nature volunteering programs
- Workshops and excursions on nature conservation topics
- Nature education activities at your company's premises
- Interactive environmental protection sessions

NATURE ACTIVITIES

Benefits for your company

It promotes collaboration, team spirit, and environmental education in a unique natural setting.

Activities for Understanding and Connecting with Nature

Customized programs conducted in protected areas, where we combine recreational activities with urgent and essential educational topics about the environment. From deforestation to responsible exploitation, from invasive species to regenerated forests — what is the true impact of humans on nature, and why it is important for everyone to understand forests and other natural values, and how to get civically involved in protecting nature.

Budget: starting from €2000

- Includes: Propark team facilitation for an average group of 15 participants
